

Today

Borrowing a Blimp
Quoting the King, Shocking
If a Dictator Comes

By Arthur Brisbane

Copyright, 1934, by The Boston Herald-Examiner, Inc. All rights reserved.

Discouraged by incompetence or misfortune that wrecked two dirigibles, this country decided that lighter-than-air machines are not necessary. It was necessary to borrow a small, privately owned blimp to take food to 3000 Tanager Islanders, cut off from relief by ice. No heavier-than-air plane could land there before the blimp, which landed easily.

Germans, who have been flying an old Zeppelin back and forth between Berlin and Brazil for two years, will fly over here to show us the biggest airship in the world, now, carrying the German flag.

The United States should be able to do what Germany can do.

England and Russia were getting along nicely, and now the Russian envoy, Litvinoff, attending the late King's funeral, commends the British unpardonable sin.

After talking with the new King, Litvinoff, instead of expressing admiration for the overwhelming royal intellect, remarked that the new King Edward Eighth was "just a mediocre young Englishman" and repeated what the young King had said to him, something "not done."

The Russian envoy reports that the English King asked him whether it was really necessary to have a revolution in Russia, and why it was necessary to murder the Russian Czar and his family.

Litvinoff thought any intelligent king should have been able to answer those questions.

Mr. Norman Thomas, of the Socialist left wing, runs for President sometimes and says the "New Deal" is leading to Fascism, a dictator.

In Italy, Socialism, and doctrines even more radical, led to the rise of Mussolini, aided by castor oil and other methods. If our dictatorship comes, some radicals will look back sadly to the good days when you could speak your mind without being shot or put to work.

Here, crime and vice rank with our great industries and "chain stores." Thomas E. Dewey, "special investigator of racketeers," gathers in 77 monograms of a New York vice "chain," operating 200 disorderly houses, with from 1000 to 2000 inmates, collecting about $12,000,000 a year. The income of organized crime in the United States is greater than that of the government.

Upward air currents that cause airplanes to "bump" force rain drops upward until they freeze and, gradually accumulating more moisture, grow bigger and bigger. Hailstones have been known to injure horses seriously and kill pigs, dogs and other smaller animals.

One man's frostbite is another man's good news. New Jersey fruit growers say the extreme cold, freezing the ground two feet deep, will destroy orchard pests, including the kypsy and codling moths. The cold, which had not injured trees, is expected to discourage larvae of the Japanese beetle.

Some day scientists will show fruit farmers, including this writer, how to penetrate the earth by radio-activity, or otherwise, to the necessary depth and kill the hibernating pests. A remedy for borers would be welcome. Radio power should solve the insect problem.

Governor Hoffman, convinced that Hauptmann had conspired in kidnapping the Lindbergh baby, intends to find the assistant before sending Hauptmann to the electric chair and closing the case. A man with a handkerchief and a "woman in the case" are wanted. French detectives look for her first. If she exists she would not be far away.

A group of 15,000,000 sportsmen will unite to protect American life, pleasing to the Angel Gabriel until he discovers that the 15,000,000 sportsmen protect wild life because they want the pleasure of shooting.

Proud Mother: "Bobby, why would you not let your little brother kill the big blue bottle fly?"

"Because I wanted to kill him myself."

N. E. Detective Stories--Haverhill Claw Hammer Murder--

TURN TO PAGE 4

NATHAN STRAUSS HUNGREW FOUND DEAD ON TRACKS

THE WEATHER
Rain, with temperatures near or slightly above 32 tonight; Wednesday fair, becoming colder, considerably below freezing; fresh easterly, shifting to south and west, wind.

High tide at 8:11 A. M. 2.30 P. M.
Low tide at 3:10 A. M. 5.30 P. M.

AVERAGE TEMPERATURES
BOSTON 28
CHICAGO 14
NEW YORK 28
LOS ANGELES 14
WASHINGTON 28

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER

The only Boston evening newspaper with three direct news services—Associated Press, International News Service and Universal Service

VOL. XXXI—No. 268

Copyright, 1934, by N. E. Newspaper Publishing Co. Printed at second-class matter at Boston Postoffice.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1936

PRICE 2 CENTS

ZONE PRICE 3 CENTS

SPORTS
STOCKS
CLOSING PRICES

Smith May Fight Roosevelt Nomination

MISS TOLMAN SECRET BRIDE

MRS. VIRGINIA TOLMAN HUNTER

Surprise Bride of Dartmouth Man

Virginia Tolman, 20-year-old Boston and Cohasset society girl, eloped and was married yesterday in Harrison, N. Y., to the Boston Evening American learned today.

She has given up her own schooling to keep house for her new husband at Haverhill, N. H.

Miss Tolman was wed to Alexander Hunter Hunter, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter, of

GILLIES TWO AS STRAUS BOY FOUND DEAD ON TRACKS

$500,000 at Stake--But Baby Dies

Toronto, Feb. 4 (INS)—A five-month-old child, which lived only a few hours, today put Mrs. Matthew Kenny in first place in Toronto's half-million dollar "Baby Sweepstakes."

The baby, born at the Kenny home when the mother refused to go to a hospital, weighed 8½ pounds. Although it did not long after arrival, for purposes of the birth race set up under the will of Charles Vance Miller, Toronto lawyer and sportsman, the birth certificate Miller's will not specify that children entered in the contest for his estate must live, but only that the birth be registered.

Miller left the bulk of his estate, now estimated at $500,000, to the Toronto mother who gives birth to the most children within the three-year period following his death. The time limit expires next December.

So far, Mrs. Kenny, whose 47-year-old husband has been unemployed for several years, has outdistanced other aspirants. Her nine children have registered only nine children with the Ontario government in the last nine years.

Upside-Down Baby Is Dying

Trail River, Feb. 4—Donald McDonald, three-month-old Portland, Me., child, was believed dying today after an operation at Truro, N. S., for an upside-down stomach.

The operation, similar to one which made a happy, healthy child of Alyce Jane McFerry last year, proved to be too much of an ordeal for the baby, judging from his weak condition at its close, it was said.

ONE KILLING CHARGED TO EX-JOCKEY

Much calmer than when he rode thoroughbreds in the Kentucky Derby, Stephen Mabey, Jr., 55, in Dorchester court today heard Judge Sadie L. Shulman hold him without bail, charged with serving Mrs. Mildred Bosse, 28, a fatal poison highball.

As the murder charge was read, the former jockey had to stand on the foot-rest in the prisoners' dock to see over the rail.

Judge Shulman asked him if he wanted a hearing on the allegation that he mixed cyanide of potassium with a drink of whiskey.

"I waive examination," said Mabey solemnly.

She held him for the grand jury and he was taken to Charles street jail with his expensive cigarette holder which, according to the police, used nonchalance last night as he made an alleged confession.

Mabey said he was insanely in love with the woman and believed

Bridal Applicant Test Asked in Bill

A bill requiring that a blood test be given all applicants for a marriage license will come up on hearing Thursday, February 6, in room 249 at the State House.

It was proposed by Dr. William Frankman, of 362 Commonwealth avenue, and is comparable to a law recently adopted in Connecticut.

AI to Fight Naming of Roosevelt

New York, Feb. 4 (AP)—The New York Sun said today that Alfred E. Smith has decided to carry his fight on the New Deal to the floor of the Democratic national convention next June by naming for delegate from his old Oliver street district.

"The Brown derby is back in the 1936 campaign to stay until election day," the paper said in a story by George Van Slyke, its chief political writer.

"His determination to run for district delegate is another challenge to President Roosevelt," James A. Farley and the "New Deal," the paper said. "He has the support of Tammany Hall."

DOUBT RENOMINATION

"Mr. Smith is understood to be ready to welcome a contest for the district delegation, but it is probable that Farley will not dare risk a showdown."

The Sun said further that there is now a doubt in the minds of Democratic state leaders, for the first time, that the President may be renominated by acclamation, as has been expected up to the present time.

"Incredible as it may seem," the story said, "practical Democratic leaders, whose great concern is to win the election, are now whispering among themselves that to renominate Mr. Roosevelt might be a political mistake."

"The change which has come about in the last few days since Mr. Smith made his Liberty League speech is extraordinary. The party faces an open and disastrous split, with the Al Smith faction ready to take a walk, thereby raising the question whether Mr. Roosevelt can be re-elected if renominated."

Bey Found Guilty, Given Life Term

Rockville, Ct., Feb. 4 (AP)—John Bey, 35, of North Hadley, Mass., was convicted of second degree murder today for the slaying of an Ellington constable and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Washington, February 4. Today's Treasury Dept. Receipts: U. S. Customs Receipts $243,383

Balance and Receipts

Washington, February 4. (AP)—Specialists bid most of the play in today's stock market.

The list had its periods of profit taking and buying when the ticker tape hit behind floor transactions.

Market Reports on Pages 16, 17, 18.

STOCKS FIRM

New York, Feb. 4 (AP)—Specialists bid most of the play in today's stock market.

The list had its periods of profit taking and buying when the ticker tape hit behind floor transactions.

Market Reports on Pages 16, 17, 18.

HIALEAH PARK RESULTS

First—Benares, 119 (7. May), 23.60, 15.00, 6.80; Starogran, 109 (R. Watson), 3.60, 2.60; Regula Baddun, 119 (J. Rosen), 3.30, Off 2.22.

Also ran—Johnny Bane, Balmaceda, Bender First, Black Boss, Latvian, Tightwad, Torch Maiden, Sorren, M. J. Brennan.

PROSECUTION BARED BY CONSTITUTIONAL AL

SELLER PLAYS HIS CARD TO LOBBY FIGHTS

Continued from First Page

unimportant. The man they want to get to James M. Carter. I worked hard. I worked honestly. I did my utmost to uncover every last scrap of evidence by every legitimate means. Nowhere was there found a single dishonest dime that could be traced to James M. Carter.

LIQUOR AND WOMEN

"I was asked to stop to the lowest possible depths by certain individuals engaged in the investigation. They hoped to prey upon the claimed weakness of one man by employing liquor and women in an effort to get him to sign a statement.

"I have four brothers who are priests and a sister who is a religious community. Naturally, I could have no part in such a plan.

"Now I am ready to tell the Finance Commission the whole story from beginning to end. What I have to say should result in major changes in the city law department.

"To charge that my release is necessary for the city is a challenge to the mayor to prove every set of mine while in the service of the city. I defy him to find a single set of mine which would warrant such a statement as appeared over his signature in a morning paper.

The news came with stunning force in the hands which Sullivan lives with his wife and five children.

RETAINS NULKEN

He immediately retained former State Senator Joseph J. Mulhern as counsel.

Securing Mulhern as counsel indicated a serious split in the ranks of Mansfield supporters. For Mulhern was one of the mayor's chief election lieutenants. He is generally given a major portion of credit for the Mansfield victory.

Mulhern is to appear at the hearing today. His client is under serious strain to testify as are Charles E. Dowd, former Boston College professor and now a city constable; Clarence A. Nade, Edmund B. Flaherty and Robert B. Chasins, managing editor of a morning newspaper.

SULLIVAN STATEMENT

Sullivan supplemented his verbal remarks on his outing with a formal typewritten statement as follows:

"My relations with Mayor Mansfield have always been most pleasant. I am deeply grateful to him for my appointment to the law department and for his constant interest in me and kindness toward me.

"Consequently, it was with grave concern and equal amazement that this afternoon on my return to my home I received a letter signed by the mayor telling me that 'as of the close of business today and for the good of the service you are hereby removed from your position as constable of the city of Boston.'

"I know of no reason other than my sworn testimony before the Finance Commission for this action of the mayor.

"The only statement I wish to make is to recount the actual facts. I received a northwesterly subpoena from the Finance Commission while in the Dorchester court commanding me to appear immediately before that body.

"Immediately I showed to Henry E. Foley, corporation counsel, informing him of this fact. He requested me to stop at the law department before reporting to the Finance Commission. This I was not permitted to do by Louis Goldberg, the constable, who served the forthwith subpoena on me.

"I requested Mr. Goldberg to notify Henry Foley immediately after I arrived at the Finance Commission rooms, and he promised to do so.

EXPLANES COURSE

"I was placed under oath at once and in answer to the first question I told the members of the Finance Commission that I would answer any question relating to my conduct as an employee of the city of Boston, but would give them no information, neither by hint nor by innuendo, of the work I had done in the Dolan case. This I lived up to from beginning to end.

"At the end of an hour Mr. Foley, the corporation counsel, met Mr. Lewis Weinstein of the law department to act as my counsel. I was told that the delay was occasioned by Mr. Foley's inability to contact either Mr. Dodge or Mr. Mulhern who were trying cases in court.

"Mr. Weinstein instructed me to refuse to answer any questions connected in any way with the Dolan case. I obeyed the instructions of Mr. Weinstein and in so doing I left the obvious implications that I had engaged in unethical, illegal and immoral practices. At Mr. Weinstein's request and, according to the chairman of the Finance Commission, at my request I walked out of the public hearing while I was still being questioned.

"The next morning, before the Finance Commission hearing, I gave no information regarding the Dolan case and answered only such only those questions which challenged my honesty and integrity.

"The ouster of Sullivan drew the first of Mr. E. J. Connelley, chairman of the Finance Commission. Chairman Sullivan termed the move a belated attempt by the mayor to cover his political 'adding.' 'He is now trying to discredit Sullivan. If he had acted before the Finance Commission acted, with all his knowledge of what was going on, he should have fired either Sullivan or Mulhern and Farman.'

"Sullivan was appointed a city constable by Mayor Mansfield in May, 1934. He was paid $2000 a year and expense.

"Judge John C. Crosby of the Supreme Court today set February 14 as the date for hearing motions on motions now pending before the court in connection with the Dolan case, in which the city is seeking an accounting of bond transactions when Dolan was city treasurer."

FOR THE HOME YOU LOVE BEST

Chose LINOLEUM

$1.79 up as yd.

PRAY'S 646 Washington St. opposite Baystation

Mayor Ousts Sullivan by Letter

FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD Mayor

CITY OF BOSTON
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CITY HALL

February 3, 1936.

Mr. Sidney E. Sullivan,
7 Mt. Everett street,
Dorchester, Mass.

Dear Sir:-

As of the close of business today and for the good of the service you are hereby removed from your position as Constable of the City of Boston.

Yours truly,

Frederick W. Mansfield

Mayor.

Facsimile of outer letter to former City Constable Sidney E. Sullivan signed by Mayor Mansfield.

MISS TOLMAN SECRET ARRE

Continued from First Page

sary for the license, the couple sent into Hartnett, Westchester County, N. Y. were married and sped off again in the bridegroom's car.

They arrived at the Town Hall during regular hours yesterday, obtained a license and asked Clerk William Justice.

GET JUSTICE. Willing telephone Justice of the Peace John J. Dillane, who officiated. The bride listed F. H. Tolman of Brooklyn as her father. At the home of John Hunter of Irvington, the bridegroom's father, the one attended the phone today.

Widow said he didn't ask the couple what college they attended, where they were to honeymoon, or anything like that. He explained.

"How enough not to ask those questions. Sometimes people have told me."

"He none of your business." The eloquent was confirmed by the date the hearing of the Tolmans, at the home of her sister on Field street, Brooklyn.

Mrs. Tolman said that the couple had been in Brooklyn last night and had left today for Haverhill, where the bridegroom will continue his studies.

DEPART IN 1932. The new Mrs. Hunter made her debut in the city at the Aqueduct Club in 1932. She was graduated from the May School and was a second-year student at the Berkshire school at the time of her elopement.

Recently, she had modeled in the Fashion Congress of America under the sponsorship of the Boston Evening American.

Like her father, the late F. Harold Tolman, head of the University Press and a widely-known sportsman, Mrs. Hunter was an expert horseback performer. She has won many prizes by her brilliant performances in horse shows at Boston, Brooklyn and Cohasset.

Harrison, N. Y., where the couple were married is the new Green Grass of America, taking precedence in the past few years over the long famous Greenwich, Ct.

Runaway Truck Crushes Driver Thrown beneath his own truck while he was making a right turn and allowed the truck to slide back, Patrick Flaherty, of Roxbury, is in a critical condition, his right arm and painful body injuries.

American Bonus Bureau Open

The Boston Evening American and Boston Sunday Advertiser have set up quarters for aid to veterans eligible for the bonus.

Application blanks are available. Questions will be answered. Individual problems will be ironed out.

In a special office at 294 DEVONSHIRE STREET, there will be men qualified to aid the veteran applicant and fill out his application.

The Boston Evening American and Boston Sunday Advertiser office is conducted in co-operation with Colonel William J. Blake, regional director of the Veterans' Bureau in the Federal Building.

Veterans may inquire about regulations by telephone. The number is LIBERTY 3180. DO NOT USE ANY OTHER NUMBER.

(Picture from International News Photographs Service)

Former City Constable Sidney E. Sullivan is photographed reading Mayor Mansfield's removal letter.

BLASTS RASKOB BID

SENATE REJECTS

Minton Hits Liberty League Aims

Washington, Feb. 4 (INS)—Action on President Roosevelt's request for a $2,491,000,000 appropriation to redeem bonus "baby bonds" was delayed today when the Senate recessed until Thursday without considering the independent offices appropriation bill.

Administration leaders planned to add the bonus appropriation as an amendment to the bill. The prompt adoption had been assured.

Roosevelt Summons Leading Agencies Heads Washington, Feb. 4 (AP)—A White House conference of chiefs of the government's leading agencies was summoned by President Roosevelt, who at the Capitol Hill awaited more corporate heads of the administration's plans.

Summoned to talk with President Roosevelt were Secretaries Morgenthau, Wallace and Secretary of the Reconstruction Corporation; Stewart McDonald, federal housing administrator; Chester Davis, farm administrator; and Arthur Hays Sulzberger, publisher of the New York Times.

Mr. Sulzberger described the meeting as a "periodic check-up on the government's revenue and expenditure program."

Blacklist to Speak Members of the Foreign Commerce Club will have dinner and a lecture by William H. Chamberlain, Jr., of John Thomas Masters.

Painter and Boys To Change Names Changes in names are sought in two petitions on file today in Middlesex probate court.

Colonel William J. Blake, of Bryant street, Malden, stated place purser, wants his name changed to William. Mrs. Eleanor Pauline Masters, of Newton, seeks permission to change the name of her 16-year-old son from Jack to John.

Mr. J. to John Thomas Masters.

POSS CASH TO MAKE DREAM COME TRUE

BY THE BONUS EDITOR

"A little home in the country for my husband and my six children, is the hope of a Roxbury mother."

She is the wife of a World War veteran.

She came to the Special Veterans Bonus Application Bureau, conducted by the Boston Evening American-Boston Sunday Advertiser at No. 234 Devonshire street, just off Summer street, to obtain an application blank for her husband.

She didn't want to leave her name. It doesn't matter, however.

The discharge, which was most of a year and a half as Red Cross nurse overseas, is going to leave her bonus with Uncle Sam.

Some are going to make repairs on their homes. In all none seem to expect that the bonus will go to waste.

Miss Helen O'Dea of Lorraine street, Roxbury, who is most of a year and a half as Red Cross nurse overseas, is going to leave her bonus with Uncle Sam.

Some are going to make repairs on their homes. In all none seem to expect that the bonus will go to waste.

Miss Helen O'Dea of Lorraine street, Roxbury, who is most of a year and a half as Red Cross nurse overseas, is going to leave her bonus with Uncle Sam.

Some are going to make repairs on their homes. In all none seem to expect that the bonus will go to waste.

Miss Helen O'Dea of Lorraine street, Roxbury, who is most of a year and a half as Red Cross nurse overseas, is going to leave her bonus with Uncle Sam.

Some are going to make repairs on their homes. In all none seem to expect that the bonus will go to waste.

Miss Helen O'Dea of Lorraine street, Roxbury, who is most of a year and a half as Red Cross nurse overseas, is going to leave her bonus with Uncle Sam.

Some are going to make repairs on their homes. In all none seem to expect that the bonus will go to waste.

Miss Helen O'Dea of Lorraine street, Roxbury, who is most of a year and a half as Red Cross nurse overseas, is going to leave her bonus with Uncle Sam.

Some are going to make repairs on their homes. In all none seem to expect that the bonus will go to waste.

Miss Helen O'Dea of Lorraine street, Roxbury, who is most of a year and a half as Red Cross nurse overseas, is going to leave her bonus with Uncle Sam.

Some are going to make repairs on their homes. In all none seem to expect that the bonus will go to waste.

Miss Helen O'Dea of Lorraine street, Roxbury, who is most of a year and a half as Red Cross nurse overseas, is going to leave her bonus with Uncle Sam.

Some are going to make repairs on their homes. In all none seem to expect that the bonus will go to waste.

Miss Helen O'Dea of Lorraine street, Roxbury, who is most of a year and a half as Red Cross nurse overseas, is going to leave her bonus with Uncle Sam.

Some are going to make repairs on their homes. In all none seem to expect that the bonus will go to waste.

Miss Helen O'Dea of Lorraine street, Roxbury, who is most of a year and a half as Red Cross nurse overseas, is going to leave her bonus with Uncle Sam.

Some are going to make repairs on their homes. In all none seem to expect that the bonus will go to waste.

Miss Helen O'Dea of Lorraine street, Roxbury, who is most of a year and a half as Red Cross nurse overseas, is going to leave her bonus with Uncle Sam.

Some are going to make repairs on their homes. In all none seem to expect that the bonus will go to waste.

Miss Helen O'Dea of Lorraine street, Roxbury, who is most of a year and a half as Red Cross nurse overseas, is going to leave her bonus with Uncle Sam.

Some are going to make repairs on their homes. In all none seem to expect that the bonus will go to waste.

Wage Is Assailed by Treadway

Washington, Feb. 4 (INS)—In one of the most bitter attacks during the present administration, Representative Allen Treadway (R.) of Massachusetts today on the House floor assailed the payment of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace.

While refraining from lodging actual impeachment articles, Representative Treadway branded Wallace as an "after midlife, ignorant and unenlightened concerning his duties as a national secretary."

The accusations by Treadway immediately brought a lively defense by Chairman Jones of Texas of the House agricultural committee, who has worked with Wallace in framing the administration's farm program since 1933.

Treadway's attack was based primarily on the comment by Wallace that the Supreme Court's decision on the payment of $100,000 in processing taxes was "the most enlightened act in history."

"He has repeated this statement over and over again," Treadway told the House. "When this statement was made on the floor of the House, it was a disgrace."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

LOBBY FIGHTS TO CHANGE

Washington, Feb. 4 (AP)—A charge that a powerful lobby is seeking to block the administration's permanent neutrality bill because it might reduce foreign trade was made today by the House committee today by Chairman McNeeney (D., Tenn.) of the foreign affairs committee.

Appearing before the rules committee to ask for right of way in the House for the legislation, McNeeney said he had "reason to believe there has been a lobby here for the very purpose of defeating the measure."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

"He added that some members of the House don't want to vote for a section providing for discretionary emergency shipment of war materials to belligerent nations with some clause of trade."

He told reporters afterward he had information that "some inter-trade, some trade."

LOEB Death Plot TRACED REVOLT UPON 'JAIL GANGDOM'

(Copyright, 1936, by Universal Service.)

Juliet, Ill., Feb. 4.—Richard Loeb was slashed to death in Stateville prison last week in a well-organized plot to overthrow an autocratic ruling class of convicts who control the lives of the 4000 inmates.

That amazing disclosure was made exclusively to Universal Service today by confidential prison sources, which also revealed that gang rule prevails at Stateville.

Criminal overlords who once ruled Chicago's underworld with machine guns and "one-way ideas," now parcel out privileges, jobs and favors to the smaller fry inside the sinister gray walls.

Brains' Job

Educated prisoners are given "soft" jobs and special privileges in exchange for doing the "hard work" for the Apache "big shot" who rule.

"Dickie" Loeb belonged to the inner circle of the ruling gang, and was bitterly hated because of his vainglorious power.

Summary punishment is meted out to all who disobey the dictates of the gang, through a system of prison pigeons who "frame" charges against recalcitrants, "turn them into the front office."

Convicts are accused as thrown into the "hole" or solitary confinement for periods ranging from seven to 30 days.

Declaring that captains of the prison guard are absolute monarchs within their realm, the informant said:

"They act as judge and jury in matters of discipline. Their word is law. They can send a prisoner to solitary on the slightest provocation."

Captain Is King

"Convicts who win or buy a captain's good graces can 'get away' with murder. These who suffer his ill will are 'given this work'."

"Stool pigeons or 'rats' as they are called by the inmates, are trusted by the captain. I have seen prisoners and rats on framed charges of assistance to a captain they hadn't laid eyes on in 30 days."

"The gang controls the 300 to 400 prisoners. They are the 'big shots' of the prison."

Hungry Roxbury

Dog Waits Buyer

It was a very exciting day yesterday for John James, who is going on half-past-four.

Rhe made a cradle out of wrapping paper at kindergarten where she is one of the most eager young scholars.

The thrill of accomplishment must be almost forgot that "Buddy," the great Belgian police dog which is the household pet at 280 Route street, Roxbury, is soon to go away from there.

"Buddy," she explained, with childish solemnity, "gets so awful hungry all the time. He never has enough to eat any more, so Buddy's going to find home for him and he won't be hungry any more."

Buddy is a very valuable dog, made from his intimate worth. Herbert J. James, his owner, hopes that someone will buy him and give him a good home.

Although he is very hard-pressed financially right now, he would sell the dog at a sacrifice to see him placed with a family that would be kind to him.

Lindy Celebrates

At 34 in Seclusion

Lindbergh, Cardiff, Wales, Feb. 4 (AP)—Lord, Charles A. Lindbergh passed his 34th birthday anniversary quietly today with his family in the seclusion of the home of his wife, Mrs. J. Lewis Morgan.

"Colin Lindbergh is entertaining friends," a member of the family said, "and he is giving definite instructions that neither he nor Mrs. Morgan be disturbed by anyone."

Morgan, father of Aubrey Neil Morgan, brother-in-law of Mrs. Lindbergh, apparently was finding no difficulty in protecting the flyer's privacy and assuring him the peace he craved the Atlantic to find.

There were no police in evidence in the vicinity of the Morgan mansion.

When Lindbergh, his wife and three-year-old son came here January 4, a half dozen police guarded the Morgan estate.

Quits Filmdom For Love Boston Merchant To Wed Actress

MISS VIRGINIA HOWARD
Engaged to Wed Richard Ehrlich

Announcement was eagerly awaited today of the wedding plans of Miss Virginia Howard, daughter of Samuel Goldwyn, movie producer, and Richard Ehrlich, of Brookline, an executive with the C. P. Harvey Company.

The engagement of the couple was announced yesterday by Mrs. Helen Howard, of Los Angeles, mother of the prospective bride.

While no definite date has been set for the wedding, it is expected that the couple will spend their honeymoon on a southern trip, and return to Boston to take up residence.

Miss Howard has been connected with the theater for four years, receiving her dramatic education in the Pasadena Playhouse, Pasadena, Calif.

Mr. Ehrlich is widely known in business and social circles in Boston and Brookline.

"Queen" Honors Sit Lightly

Minus its wheelchair, its rigging in shreds, and with one member of the crew badly injured, the line trawler Ruth and Margaret, out of Gloucester, tied up at the fish pier today after a terrific battle with the sea.

Fred Busher, 24, of Gloucester was taken to Chelsea Marine Hospital with a lacerated face and severe shoulder injuries.

He was in the pilot house at the wheel with a full gale blowing on Sunday afternoon when a wave which Capt. Michael Clarke described as higher than the mast, stood the ship on its nose.

Busher was thrown forward on his face and hurtled down a companionway. A second later another wave maintained momentum, swept the wheelhouse overboard.

The Ruth and Margaret came from Gloucester Banks, 120 miles east of Boston.

Mother and Five Overcome by Gas

Worcester, Feb. 4.—A mother and her five children, were overcome by coal gas in their first floor apartment in Arthur street today.

All five were made seriously ill by the gas, according to physicians at Worcester City hospital, who held the bodies.

The overcomes are Mrs. Angeline Cavell, 44, and her children, Albert, 8, Henry, 6, Charles, 12, Helen, 14, and James, 24.

Honor does not hang heavy on pretty Edna Jones, who on Sunday was made "Queen of St. Moritz," during the Quincy carnival held amid snow and ice—for yesterday early we found her at her job at 34 Congress street.

Of course there were many congratulations extended before Edna sat down at her typewriter. Then the busy day started for this "queen."

4 FIRES Sweep Over BOSTON TRIPLE ALARM IN W. ROXBURY

St. Theresa's Hall in West Roxbury was completely destroyed in a spectacular blaze today, necessitating alarms at flames shot 100 feet into the air after bursting through the roof.

Damage was estimated at $20,000.

All the instruments of the Boston police band were destroyed in the fire.

The West Roxbury Catholic Club held an entertainment in the hall last night and all policemen of that district were special guests. The band of the police post, American Legion, played and the members left their instruments behind.

The fire came on the heels of a snowstorm which swept the North End and South Boston communities in an upsurge and sent a newly married couple to City Hospital in a day's confinement.

The West Roxbury hall was used as St. Theresa's Church until the structure was swept several years ago.

Two of the earlier fires were in the North End, and occurred within five minutes of each other. They are under police investigation in the belief that a firebug was responsible. In both instances, the flames started in rubbish under stairs.

Dying at the hospital are Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas, 21, of Washburn street, South Boston, whose clothing was set flaming by an explosion of a heater in their bedroom.

In the case, the pair raced to the street and were rushed to the hospital. The bride and groom, who were married last night, had their faces, neck and back, Dekker had first and second degree burns. Their names are on the danger list.

Baby Girl Saved

Thrilling rescue were effected by firemen as 13 other persons were driven to the street in the three-story house in West Boston, which two alarms were sounded.

The barking of a dog probably saved the lives of the four children of Mrs. Stella Jullienne, who on the top floor. They were carried to safety by Alfred Duncan, of Rydner street, Dorchester, and Harold Warnock, of Vinton street, South Boston, who were passing at the time.

Three firemen were injured, eight families routed and six persons carried down ladders in the North End fire, which occurred in Cooper street and nearby Endicott street. It is believed that while the rescue were being made in the Cooper street fire, the firebug fired the other house.

From the top floor of the four-story building in Cooper street, firemen carried Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mullen and Anna Martin, down over ladders. Mrs. Laura Brogan, her daughter, and Mrs. Mary and Miss Stella Fiume were rescued similarly from the third floor.

Firemen John Hubbard and John Morgan, both of Eugene street, and Fireman John Sweeney, of Kingston street, were rescued from the fire station for cuts.

The fire in Endicott street, 13, whose father owns the five-story block there and in whose four families fled.

Sailor Badly Hurt In Battle With Gale

Minus its wheelchair, its rigging in shreds, and with one member of the crew badly injured, the line trawler Ruth and Margaret, out of Gloucester, tied up at the fish pier today after a terrific battle with the sea.

Fred Busher, 24, of Gloucester was taken to Chelsea Marine Hospital with a lacerated face and severe shoulder injuries.

He was in the pilot house at the wheel with a full gale blowing on Sunday afternoon when a wave which Capt. Michael Clarke described as higher than the mast, stood the ship on its nose.

Busher was thrown forward on his face and hurtled down a companionway. A second later another wave maintained momentum, swept the wheelhouse overboard.

The Ruth and Margaret came from Gloucester Banks, 120 miles east of Boston.

Mother and Five Overcome by Gas

Worcester, Feb. 4.—A mother and her five children, were overcome by coal gas in their first floor apartment in Arthur street today.

All five were made seriously ill by the gas, according to physicians at Worcester City hospital, who held the bodies.

The overcomes are Mrs. Angeline Cavell, 44, and her children, Albert, 8, Henry, 6, Charles, 12, Helen, 14, and James, 24.

Honor does not hang heavy on pretty Edna Jones, who on Sunday was made "Queen of St. Moritz," during the Quincy carnival held amid snow and ice—for yesterday early we found her at her job at 34 Congress street.

Of course there were many congratulations extended before Edna sat down at her typewriter. Then the busy day started for this "queen."

Quincy Thieves Get 1000 Lbs. Butter

Two breaks of a similar nature were reported to Quincy police today.

Climbing up a snowbank to a secondary window, thieves entered the Swift & Co's plant on Dimmock street, Quincy, and stole 1000 pounds of butter valued at $100.

Again a broken window figured in a break at Rigley's gasoline station on Bee street, Quincy. The cash register was rifled of $13.

St. Theresa's Hall Destroyed by Early Morning Fire

Boston firemen today had one of their hardest battles in many a day at the St. Theresa's Hall, Spring and Gardner streets, West Roxbury. The hall, formerly the church before a new building was erected was almost a total loss, as shown by this photograph. Many neighbors were forced to the street by the fire.

10-Year-Old Liggett Girl Tells of Father's Killing

Minneapolis, Feb. 4 (AP)—A bit sweet by a crowded courtroom, Marda Liggett, 10-year-old daughter of Walter Liggett, slain publisher of the Midwest American, testified for the state in district court today, where leaders (Kid Cann) Blumenfeld, former bootlegger, is on trial charged with murder.

"You saw how many men in the car?" Fred Pike, in charge of the prosecution, asked.

"I think it was two," Marda replied in a tiny voice barely audible to judge Arthur Solverson.

"You saw the number of men in the front seat?" Pike questioned.

"Yes."

When Thomas McFadden, counsel for Kid Cann, said there was no cross-examination, Marda walked demurely from the room.

Her brother, Wallace, 12, also waited a call to take the witness stand.

FIRE HELLS MAN IN LOWELL

Lowell, Feb. 4.—One man perished, a 15-year-old girl was rescued and 10 other persons were forced to flee as a two-alarm fire destroyed a tenement block in Court street today.

Victim of the blaze was Elmer Colburn, resident of a second-floor apartment in the building.

Mrs. Mary and Jack Colburn, 13, was carried from the flaming building by John McManis of High street, who discovered the blaze and aroused sleeping residents of the building.

The blaze apparently started in the second floor of the building from an undetermined cause. It spread through a hallway, burning through the roof, destroying the forward line of the Tenement block.

Damage was estimated at $6000.

Colburn's body was found in the third floor of the building. He had apparently been trying to make his way to the roof.

Conacher's Wife Asks Decree

Toronto, Feb. 4 (AP)—Application for divorce was contained in a writ filed in court by Mrs. Charles Conacher, wife of the Toronto Maple Leaf star right wing.

Conacher, in Boston, where the Leafs play the Bruins tonight in a N. H. L. game.

Conacher, hard shooting right wing of the Maple Leafs, has been one of the high scoring players in the National Hockey League for the past two years.

He broke into the league in 1934 and teamed with Babe Jackson and Charley Primrose to make up the famous forward line of the Toronto team.

Conacher has been out of the lineup for a greater part of this year with a knee and was to make his return to the ice against the Bruins tonight. He is the brother of Lionel Conacher.

Quincy Thieves Get 1000 Lbs. Butter

Two breaks of a similar nature were reported to Quincy police today.

Climbing up a snowbank to a secondary window, thieves entered the Swift & Co's plant on Dimmock street, Quincy, and stole 1000 pounds of butter valued at $100.

Again a broken window figured in a break at Rigley's gasoline station on Bee street, Quincy. The cash register was rifled of $13.

Married Teacher Bruno Wife Ban Legal in N. H. Silent on Death Threat

Concord, N. H., Feb. 4 (AP)—The State Supreme Court today ruled it would not be unconstitutional for the state to pass an act under which married women would be ineligible to teach in public schools.

"No one," the court said, "has a guaranteed or vested right to become or to continue in a position as a public school teacher."

W. E. Merriss Dies

San Diego, Cal., Feb. 4 (AP)—William E. Merriss, 75, for 41 years secretary of the American Smelting and Refining Company of New York, died here last night. He was born in Newton Center, Mass.

A few hours later, the governor signed a reprieve for the condemned kidnap-murderer of the Lindbergh baby.

According to an unimpeachable source close to Governor Hoffman, Internal Service learned that during the conference Mrs. Hauptmann declared:

"If Richard dies in the execution chair, my baby and I will follow him. I will kill myself and my Manfred if you kill Richard."

TAGUE NAMED POSTMASTER

Washington, Feb. 4 (AP)—President Roosevelt today nominated Acting Postmaster Peter F. Tague to be postmaster at Boston.

Tague was made acting postmaster here by Postmaster General Frazier on Oct. 4, 1935 after a long political wrangle over the place then held by William E. Hurley, whose term was expiring.

Governor Curley had urged appointment of Tague who, as a Congressman during the war, was also a personal friend of President Roosevelt, with whom he had numerous contacts when the President was assistant secretary of the navy. Gen. Charles H. Cole and former Governor's Councilman James H. Brennan, as well as Hurley, had strong backing for the place.

Alyce's Mother Given Divorce

Reconciled when their daughter, Alyce Jane McHenry, filed to read under the knife in Fremont, Nebraska, Paul McHenry, father of Alyce, again, the parents of the "Smile Girl" today divorced.

Reeling charges of cruelty and non-support, Mrs. Luella McHenry won a decree from a judge in her home city, Omaha, Nebraska.

Paul McHenry, father of Alyce, a salesman of Iowa, did not contest the divorce, nor the monthly payments to be made for the support of Alyce and her mother.

Whitin Strike Vote Thursday

Northbridge, Feb. 4.—Striking workers of the Paul Whitin Manufacturing Company are to vote Thursday on an agreement to end the general walkout at the plant.

The agreement, decided upon at a conference of the employees, workers and federal conciliators, was rejected by workers in a first vote. No hope is being entertained that it will be accepted Thursday.

Two women are now in death row at Sing Sing. They are Mrs. Dorothy Sherwood (right), shown as she entered the main gate at Sing Sing, accompanied by Maurice Belle Clark, Mrs. Sherwood, self-styled "mercy killer" of her infant son, is just a cell away from Mrs. Frances Creighton, infant slayer of Ada Applegate. Women's murderers' row in Sing Sing has but three cells. Two are filled.

Whitin Strike Vote Thursday

Northbridge, Feb. 4.—Striking workers of the Paul Whitin Manufacturing Company are to vote Thursday on an agreement to end the general walkout at the plant.

The agreement, decided upon at a conference of the employees, workers and federal conciliators, was rejected by workers in a first vote. No hope is being entertained that it will be accepted Thursday.

As Told by Ace Crime Reporters

Noble, Haverhill's 'Model Boy,' Killer of Mrs. Ellis

Telephone a Murder Clue

Watch Gives Slayer Clue

Calls in Vain

She beat the cook to the kitchen. She laid dainty linen, heavy silver on her mistress' breakfast table. Miss Ring appeared, and in a few minutes coffee was bubbling, orange juice was strained and ice-bacon sputtered in the broiler.

It was 7 o'clock when Ag Pearson, following her daily

She opened the door and peeped in. She peered, unbelieving. She stared, transfixed with horror. Her screams echoed through the house. Arthur Reardon said, "If it is not except the voice of the doctor, that nobody understood, sounded the first alarm in a strange Massachusetts murder case."

Reardon said, "Reardon saw in there in the bedroom that morning was her mistress, a woman of beauty, culture and wealth, leader of society in the city of Haverrhill, lying in a bloody bed with her accused criminal."

She looked on Mrs. Clara E. C.

Crushed

The widow of John killed in 1928. Her son, George, Colonel Mathilde. She was of the of the Clement back to Robert. The family mandating social established for

...s. Ellis had one of recovery, ginary and, minis-

quickly resolved from suspicion
Mrs. Agnes Neardon and Norah
Ring, both heartbroken. Miss Neardon had been in the house 1 years, half her life; Miss Ring had on there 25 years.
Had anybody called on Mrs. Ellis the night before?
Yes, there had been a caller.
Who?
Major Ralph Townsend Heard, my instructor and observation offer, close friend of Mrs. Ellis and her family. Major Heard was sailing for the West Indies from New York two days later. He had called on his stops on a round of Ellis, to say a pleasant goodbye. He arrived on the previous evening some little time before 9

Police officers. This police reached some tentative decisions:

Crime Amateur

That the criminal was an amateur, not very young.

That he was the president of Haverhill who knew of Mrs. Ellis' watch.

That his motive was robbery.

That he was a native of Haverhill.

That he was not married when arrested. Ellis awakened, perhaps startled, by the man who committed robbery because of his panic.

So police prepared a list of men and young men who lived in the town.

make, without resting. Cl of the man who had been Lawrence and Moskier.
The description of the y followed:

Sergeant Blanchard read the case, looked at the watch, h at Russell Noble. He read a telephone.

"I've got that watch," h
Noble, "I've got it." He
"A man, the president of Ru
Noble, with his brother Cha had it."

Note Held

"Russell Noble," said Cap
Hissary, "is the boy who del papers at the home of Mrs.
His name is on the list."

False Story

Recent attempts have been made to reopen the case on the basis of a new story that tells, mainly, that the woman he killed, "was not a false story. The woman he considered never knew him and he set foot in her house until the day he killed her. He entered the house for no other reason than to rob and he killed her for no reason than that panic that overwhelmed him when he, "boy," was discovered.

Mrs. Ellis could not have him to police. She always paid newspaper bill by check to dealer. It's likely she had

Why don't you think we're artists and we should say to their wayward offering:

"Why don't you be like Russell Noble? There's a boy to delight a mother's heart."

It was a fine thing for Russell Noble's mother that she was dead, or at least on the morning of March 4, three days after the attack on Mrs. Ellis, he confessed to a crime.

Follow Vicks Plan
A helpful guide to fewer colon, Chemists and Medical Practicing physicians—further lions. The Plan is fully exp

153 ★
Over 17 Million Vicks Aids U

For Better Control of Colds
and shorter colds. Developed by Vicks tested in extensive clinics by practiced in everyday home use by millions in each Vicks package.

Terms $2.00 a Week

These wonderful new instruments are in stock, with fell rich tones and standard or in grand piano construction. Built especially for home with limited floor space. TRADE

SALE BEING HELD AT A PRIVATE REPROOF PIANO WAREHOUSE
NEWBURY ST., BOSTON

Cor. Brookline Ave.
at
at Kenmore St.

hunt and from the rear boundary of the Ellis property about 20 feet in from Maple street, he suddenly called:

"Here! I think I've found it."

In the snow, there, lay a reddened claw hammer. Ted seized it and examined it. It was a claw hammer of a kind sometimes turned by the hundreds of thousands every 100 or 200 articles.

most plausible motive, despite the fact that nothing seemed to have been taken from the bedroom. Police were convinced that drawers at the sideboard had been searched by an intruder, even though nothing was gone from them, and the most cursory search—far from a thorough ransacking—indicated an amateur burglar.

Why don't you think we're artists and we should say to their wayward offering:

"Why don't you be like Russell Noble? There's a boy to delight a mother's heart."

It was a fine thing for Russell Noble's mother that she was dead, or at least on the morning of March 4, three days after the attack on Mrs. Ellis, he confessed to a crime.

Follow Vicks Plan
A helpful guide to fewer colon, Chemists and Medical Practicing physicians—further lions. The Plan is fully exp

153 ★
Over 17 Million Vicks Aids U

For Better Control of Colds
and shorter colds. Developed by Vicks
tested in extensive clinics by practiced in everyday home use by millions in each Vicks package.

Keep Colds
After CONTR

Caught a Cold?
Vicks VapoRub helps
End a Cold Sooner

If a cold has developed, rub Vicks VapoRub on throat and chest bedtime. VapoRub acts directly—ways at (1) By stimulating through the skin like a poultice plaster; (2) By inhalation of medicated vapor direct to inflame air passages. Through this action, helps break congestion, soothes throat, relieves sinusitis and shorter colds. Developed by Vicks tested in extensive clinical by prescribed in everyday home use by millions in each Vicks package.

Vicks Vapo Rub Formulas with GRACE MENTHOL
Manufactured by W.F. & O. (U.S.) INC. (Inventor)

Yearly for Better Control of Cold

Boston on Broadway:

STAR OVER-NIGHT

Fast Work
By Newton
Actor

PERKINS IN LIMELIGHT

In this, the tenth article of her series of intimate and revealing interviews with men and women of Greater Boston whose talents have been recognized on Broadway, Miss Ann Masters tells of the rise of Osgood Perkins, a West Newton boy who made good in the theater.

By ANN MASTERS
There are a few—a very few—who have attained "over-night" success on Broadway. Osgood Perkins is one of these.

There are a few who have made the journey from Boston to Broadway in a short space of time—but undoubtedly Osgood Perkins holds the record.

And now may we present Mr. Perkins himself—actor who has played in the most successful of Broadway shows, "The Great Gatsby," and who has been recognized on Broadway, and for whom Hollywood is preparing a picture.

He is a serious actor, with a quiet, almost indolent manner, and at the moment he seems not at all the theatrical villain that he is portraying in "End of Summer," which opened last night at the Colonial Theater.

Stars Ambition

Oddly enough (or perhaps it's not so odd) the Colonial Theater was the scene of Perkins' first realization that he must some day be an actor.

He was just six years old at the time. His name was James Osgood Perkins and he lived in the house in which he now lives, 100 West Newton street, West Newton.

"I remember distinctly," he said, "the birth of my ambition. For some reason, my mother took me to a matinee performance of Ben Hur. I don't remember who Ben Hur was, but I know that I was completely entranced by the whole thing. It was the first time I had ever been inside a theater. I had never known, before, that such things went on."

"So I said to myself—That's what I'm going to do."

After that, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Perkins are reported to have had quite a time keeping their young son from running away in search of a stage career.

Finally, young James was made to realize that he must stay at home and go to school. The rest of the little boy's West Newton life was a struggle to get into the theater.

"I had hoped when I was quite young," he said, "to be a romantic leading man. But I changed my mind when I got to taking a few good looks at this face of mine. My face is a blessing (in disguise) for thank heaven I'm NOT a romantic leading man."

"Then I went to Harvard," said Mr. Perkins, slightly reticent as to his history. "I didn't go for any particular reason—just because it seems to be the thing to do."

In Pi Eta Shows

Of course he plunged into Harvard theater and he played the lead in several Pi Eta Club shows.

In 1914 he graduated from Harvard—and at last he was free to earn his living as an actor.

"I packed up and went to New York to look for my fortune," he said. "I didn't have a cent, and I was a very original movie, TV actor, and I had no idea how to show myself in a job. Well, I didn't find it—and the following year I went to work."

Don't Get Up Nights

Don't let your bladder laxative free. It's the best way to keep your bladder healthy and your nerves at ease. It's the best way to keep your bladder healthy and your nerves at ease. It's the best way to keep your bladder healthy and your nerves at ease.

Record
Holder, Always Wanted

BOSSE KILLING LAIN BY POLICE TO EX-JOCKEY

Continued from First Page

her regard for him was fading, according to the police.

Information given to Police Commissioner M. McEvoy by a prominent Boston business man, a personal friend of the assassin, resulted in Mabey's arrest. The information had to do with the purchase of the poison.

"McEvoy," McEvoy continued the fact that Mabey's information had been given to him leading to the arrest, but he said: "The credit should be given to the police officers who carried the case to a conclusion in the public way, as this incident shows co-operation with the Boston police department in a highly creditable manner."

"The information was given to me by a business man who does not want to have any of the details revealed. I simply handed it on to the detective division and they did the rest. It started us on the right track."

Mabey, freshly shaven and wearing a neat suit, had no lawyer for his brief courtroom session. He had slept soundly in a cell at Station 11, Police Courthouse, after his arrest.

At police headquarters, where he was taken to the holding room before going to court, he reiterated that he had been madly in love with Mrs. Bosse and felt that she had caused him to do it.

According to police, Mabey said he bought the poison at a drug store in Summer street, near South Station, with the intention of killing himself, but changed his mind. He allegedly said he shared a dose of whiskey with Mrs. Bosse, and then he told her about his plan.

There were two other men left. One was a man named John T. McCarthy, who was a friend of Mabey's. The other was a man named John T. McCarthy, who was a friend of Mabey's.

"I suppose she went for a dose of the poison," he said, "and she gave it to her. I saw her take it."

Inspector John T. McCarthy of the detective division, who was in charge of the case, said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it. He said that he was sure Mabey was the man who did it.

Mabey Talks Freely to Police on Poisoning

Continued from First Page

Stephen L. Mabey, at the left, leaving police headquarters for Roxbury Court, where he was held without bail on charge of poisoning Mrs. Mildred Bosse in her Dorchester home. During the night police secured an alleged confession from the former Pennsylvanian. Guarding Mabey are Sergeant William Britt and Captain Thomas Mulvey.

"I might as well get it off my mind and tell the whole story," police quoted him as saying.

"Then, while I was in the cell, he accused Mrs. Bosse of going out with other men, but that originally he bought the poison to use himself because he was dependent over criticism that his affection for him was cooling."

At the night of the crime, police said, he told of eating on his table with a bit of whiskey and the cynic.

"The next day, when I was in the cell, I told the whole story," police quoted him as saying.

An argument followed, he said, according to police, and then he made up his mind to mix the poison with his food. He said that he was in the kitchen, and that he gave the glass to Mrs. Bosse, the police asserted.

"He took the drink and walked into the bathroom, drank it and fell to the floor. She didn't make a sound."

RODE KAFFIR KING
Mabey has had a colorful career. As a small boy he went to school in Scotland, Fla., but he ran away to join a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city. He was a member of the Kaffir King, a circus which had made one-night stands in the city.

WAR COUNCILS CALLED BY MUSSOLINI

Continued from First Page

London, Feb. 4.—Confronted with the fear of further sanctions, Premier Mussolini ordered today with Italy's two highest advisory groups, the supreme defense council, and the Fascist grand council.

These two bodies are to help 11 Duce decide the next step in the war in Ethiopia and the manner of fortifying the populace at home against privations due to the shutting off of supplies from League of Nations members.

PROBLEMS OF DEFENSE
The defense commission's study was understood finally to include: 1.—Development of substitutes and foreign sources for raw materials. 2.—Maintenance of merchant marine operations in any future war-time. 3.—Military discipline of the civil population in any extension of the Italian African War.

4.—Measures for protection of non-combatants. Marshal Pietro Badoglio reported today to Rome that bodies of native warriors who have come over to the Italian side have received the Ethiopian bands in the region of Neghelli, on the southern war front.

League to Put Oil Ban Against Italy Up to U. S. (Copyright, 1935, by the Associated Press)

Geneva, Feb. 4.—A virtual ultimatum by the League of Nations calling upon the United States to cooperate in cutting off Italy's oil supply or "bear the moral responsibility" in the event of the technical sub-committee now studying means of applying an oil ban.

A member of the experts committee for the International News Service that the group would probably approve the oil embargo on condition that the United States should not object.

The most astounding aspect of this plan is the fact that, according to the committee, a definite date will be fixed by the technicians before which Washington must reply.

They were taken to Mills street station and submitted to a grilling, during which, according to police, they admitted nearly a score of burglaries in various sections of the city.

In the office of the General Electric Company, 60 Pearl street, the committee had been knocked off a safe and 223 taken.

Electric drills were stolen from the Westmore Savings Company, an electric company at 70 Pearl street, but when employees arrived for work today they could find no evidence that anything of value was missing.

There were no marks on doors showing that they had been forced and police believe the thieves secreted themselves in the block last night before the building was closed.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

South Boston parents contended the new school is a top for all. An editorial Superintendent Edward J. Muddion, in whose district the school is situated, said many parents erroneously supposed small children were to have to go to the new school, whereas in reality only seventh, eighth and ninth grade pupils are affected.

BOGUS SWEET DRIVE OPENS

Revealing a new federal drive against racketeers in bogus sweetstakes tickets, Assistant United States Attorney Henry M. Leno disclosed today that Boston, Holyoke, New Haven, New York and Montreal are the "hot spots" in the racket.

Leno said he was preparing a voluminous report on the bogus sweetstakes activities which have entwined New Englanders of $200,000, and will present it to the federal grand jury before its term expires, March 31.

According to Leno, there are about a dozen "big shots" controlling the racket, and despite the present investigation bogus tickets are beginning to appear from Manchester, N. H., Cleveland and Detroit.

"In Boston, Holyoke, New Haven, New York and Montreal we find the racket," Leno said, "and it is being controlled by a few big shots. The racket is being controlled by a few big shots. The racket is being controlled by a few big shots."

"The government is doing its best to halt the evil, which has been responsible for the enrichment of a small minority at the expense of the many."

"The government is doing its best to halt the evil, which has been responsible for the enrichment of a small minority at the expense of the many."

"The government is doing its best to halt the evil, which has been responsible for the enrichment of a small minority at the expense of the many."

"The government is doing its best to halt the evil, which has been responsible for the enrichment of a small minority at the expense of the many."

"The government is doing its best to halt the evil, which has been responsible for the enrichment of a small minority at the expense of the many."

"The government is doing its best to halt the evil, which has been responsible for the enrichment of a small minority at the expense of the many."

"The government is doing its best to halt the evil, which has been responsible for the enrichment of a small minority at the expense of the many."

"The government is doing its best to halt the evil, which has been responsible for the enrichment of a small minority at the expense of the many."

"The government is doing its best to halt the evil, which has been responsible for the enrichment of a small minority at the expense of the many."

"The government is doing its best to halt the evil, which has been responsible for the enrichment of a small minority at the expense of the many."

"The government is doing its best to halt the evil, which has been responsible for the enrichment of a small minority at the expense of the many."

"The government is doing its best to halt the evil, which has been responsible for the enrichment of a small minority at the expense of the many."

"The government is doing its best to halt the evil, which has been responsible for the enrichment of a small minority at the expense of the many."

"The government is doing its best to halt the evil, which has been responsible for the enrichment of a small minority at the expense of the many."

"The government is doing its best to halt the evil, which has been responsible for the enrichment of a small minority at the expense of the many."

STANTON Before you buy any truck

Let the 1936 Ford V-8 Truck prove itself on your job without cost or obligation to you!

ONE "on-the-job" test will tell you more about the Ford V-8 Truck for 1936 than a thousand sales claims. That's why this test was developed. It makes you the sole judge of Ford V-8 performance, dependability and economy—on your own job!

This test gives you a chance to see the Ford V-8 Truck at work hauling your own loads over your regular routes, with your own driver at the wheel. It gives you an opportunity to check Ford power, speed, handling ease and fuel efficiency. Ford V-8 Trucks, because of their design and construction actually haul more tons, more miles, with more satisfaction and at less cost.

If you are seeking to reduce your haulage costs, or improve your delivery service, you are invited to test a Ford V-8 Truck or Commercial Car on your job. Put your own driver at the wheel. Then after a thorough test, check the results. There is no obligation, just phone your nearest Ford Dealer—he will make all arrangements.

AUTHORIZED FORD DEALERS OF NEW ENGLAND

FORD V-8 TRUCKS

FOR 1936

AND UP, F. O. B. DETROIT—Easy terms through the Universal Credit Company—the authorized finance plan.

ONE "on-the-job" test will tell you more about the Ford V-8 Truck for 1936 than a thousand sales claims. That's why this test was developed. It makes you the sole judge of Ford V-8 performance, dependability and economy—on your own job!

This test gives you a chance to see the Ford V-8 Truck at work hauling your own loads over your regular routes, with your own driver at the wheel. It gives you an opportunity to check Ford power, speed, handling ease and fuel efficiency. Ford V-8 Trucks, because of their design and construction actually haul more tons, more miles, with more satisfaction and at less cost.

If you are seeking to reduce your haulage costs, or improve your delivery service, you are invited to test a Ford V-8 Truck or Commercial Car on your job. Put your own driver at the wheel. Then after a thorough test, check the results. There is no obligation, just phone your nearest Ford Dealer—he will make all arrangements.

AUTHORIZED FORD DEALERS OF NEW ENGLAND

FORD V-8 TRUCKS

FOR 1936

AND UP, F. O. B. DETROIT—Easy terms through the Universal Credit Company—the authorized finance plan.

ONE "on-the-job" test will tell you more about the Ford V-8 Truck for 1936 than a thousand sales claims. That's why this test was developed. It makes you the sole judge of Ford V-8 performance, dependability and economy—on your own job!

This test gives you a chance to see the Ford V-8 Truck at work hauling your own loads over your regular routes, with your own driver at the wheel. It gives you an opportunity to check Ford power, speed, handling ease and fuel efficiency. Ford V-8 Trucks, because of their design and construction actually haul more tons, more miles, with more satisfaction and at less cost.

If you are seeking to reduce your haulage costs, or improve your delivery service, you are invited to test a Ford V-8 Truck or Commercial Car on your job. Put your own driver at the wheel. Then after a thorough test, check the results. There is no obligation, just phone your nearest Ford Dealer—he will make all arrangements.

AUTHORIZED FORD DEALERS OF NEW ENGLAND

FORD V-8 TRUCKS

STANTON Before you buy any truck

Let the 1936 Ford V-8 Truck prove itself on your job without cost or obligation to you!

ONE "on-the-job" test will tell you more about the Ford V-8 Truck for 1936 than a thousand sales claims. That's why this test was developed. It makes you the sole judge of Ford V-8 performance, dependability and economy—on your own job!

This test gives you a chance to see the Ford V-8 Truck at work hauling your own loads over your regular routes, with your own driver at the wheel. It gives you an opportunity to check Ford power, speed, handling ease and fuel efficiency. Ford V-8 Trucks, because of their design and construction actually haul more tons, more miles, with more satisfaction and at less cost.

If you are seeking to reduce your haulage costs, or improve your delivery service, you are invited to test a Ford V-8 Truck or Commercial Car on your job. Put your own driver at the wheel. Then after a thorough test, check the results. There is no obligation, just phone your nearest Ford Dealer—he will make all arrangements.

BRANN LEADER OF MAINE RAW DEAL REVOLT

(This is the last of a series of articles on the fate of the Raw Deal in Maine as the result of Governor Brann's refusal to run for office again, following his split with the White House.)

By BEN GRABSON
Boston Evening American Staff Writer.

Augusta, Me., Feb. 4.—Governor Louis D. Brann has gone Al Smith one better.

The "Happy Warrior" in his now famous speech, implied a walkout on the Democratic party, unless the two platforms were adopted and fulfilled.

Governor Brann, as the result of week-end developments, has already walked out on the Democratic party of Roosevelt—not of Jefferson and Jackson—fully and definitely.

The Governor had already announced he would not seek a third term or any other office, but his break with President Roosevelt and Jim Farley, over their Raw Deal program and their refusal to give him state patronage rights.

Saturday, the Democratic state committee of Maine unanimously voted to ask Governor Brann to seek a third term. It was another way of asking him to become reconciled with the administration and sign over the Raw Deal in Maine.

The governor was in the time. He refused to tell the press whether he would accept. He said there had to be a wait until he returned to his state.

BRANN TO REFUSE

In a few days he will give his answer. The Boston Evening American has learned it in advance from reliable sources close to him, that the answer will be an unqualified "NO."

One of his closest friends and political advisers revealed today that the Governor means what he says when he declined to run again for a third term. Brann feels he doesn't owe his party a thing.

He is through with the kind of Democracy that is being run out by the President, Jim Farley, the House Trustee and the "Cup-wells and Wallaces, the authority said.

Governor Brann is going through with his plan. On the surface he will return to his law practice. Behind the scenes he will direct the fight of Jeffersonian Democracy of Maine against Raw Deal Democracy for state, Congressional and Presidential offices.

At the same time, a survey disclosed that the American Liberty League speech of Al. Smith has made a decided hit in the Free State.

It was hailed by regular Republicans. It was analyzed and lauded by reviving Democrats led by Brann. And that faction forms a great majority of Maine Democrats.

A new problem—the fate of the Quoddy tidal project—has aroused speculation all over Maine.

FEAR FOR PROJECT

With Brann staging his walkout, and indications the state will go Republican by a big majority as a result, fear is expressed that the Washington "Gill" will drop the project by refusing to allocate more funds, as a means of retaliation.

Political analysts, say however, that President Roosevelt must go through with the enterprise even if he is defeated in Maine. On the other hand, it is pointed out that most members of Congress know nothing about Quoddy and don't care.

Maine people living in a 50 to 100 mile radius outside Quoddy, believe it never will be built. They never thought it would.

SENTIMENT SHIFTING EAST

The final phases of the Boston Evening American survey showed that the Raw Deal had a lot of strength in Maine a year and a half ago. There has been a great change the last eight months.

The Literary Digest poll showed 4 to 1 against the Raw Deal.

Conservative observers, however, place the ratio 2 to 1. They figure that 30,000 votes were cast last national election. Maine is a powerful Republican state. It always was until Governor Brann's split run.

At present, it is estimated there are two Republicans for every Democrat, which would make the forthcoming presidential tally 200,000 to 100,000 against the President.

The consensus is that the Raw Deal will be defeated by a majority of 55,000 and that Republicans will make a clean sweep.

2 Kipling Poems
Harvard Feature

A poem by Rudyard Kipling which an English magazine selected and the original manuscript of "Recessional" feature a memorial exhibit of Kipling's works in the Harvard Library today.

The unpublished poem is called "Sons of the Suburbs."

Flavor sauces

for FISH
and MEAT
—Just Add—

GOLDEN'S Mustard

BONDED BARGAINS

The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company

- SALAD DRESSING "RAJAH" 16 OZ JAR 17c
- RAJAH EXTRACTS 8 OUNCE BOTTLE 19c
- RAJAH PREPARED MUSTARD 4 OZ JAR 9c
- ANN PAGE KETCHUP 16 OZ BOTTLE 12c
- MELLOWHEAT BREAKFAST CEREAL 16 OZ BOX 15c
- ENCORE OLIVE OIL PURE VIRGIN OIL 4 LBS CAN 25c
- COD LIVER OIL 16 PINT JAR 19c
- RAJAH CIDER VINEGAR 16 OZ JAR 9c
- OUR OWN TEA 4 LBS PKG 19c
- IONA BAKING CHOCOLATE 2.5 OZ PKG 15c
- KLEENLIN WASHING FLUID 2 BOTS 25c
- BISQUICK FOR BETTER BISCUITS 44 OZ PKG 27c
- P & G SOAP WHITE NAPHTHA 5 BARS 17c
- BULK PEA BEANS 3 LBS 10c
- YELLOW or GREEN SPLIT PEAS 16 LBS 5c

- ★ Top Quality, Always
- HEAVY STEER BEEF
- TOP ROUND STEAK 16 LB 29c
- FRESH OR CORNED... EASTERN CUT
- SHOULDERS 16 LB 19c
- BEEF CORNED JUST RIGHT TO SUIT YOUR TASTE
- THICK ENDS 16 LB 25c
- PICKWICK BRAND
- FRANKFORTS 16 LB 19c
- SUNNYFIELD—LEAN—THIN SLICES
- BACON 1/2 LB PKG 19c

- SAUSAGE BOURNEMOUTH PURE PORK 16 LB 29c
- BACON PORK OR STRIP 16 LB 29c
- HALIBUT FLOUNDER 16 LB 21c
- SWORDFISH FLOUNDER 16 LB 23c

- McIntosh APPLES 6 LBS 25c
- PEAS NEW FLORIDA 3 LBS 25c
- BROCCOLI CALIFORNIA 16 LB 5c
- ORANGES GOLDEN JUICY 5 LB BAG 25c
- TURNIPS PRINCE ED. IS. YELLOW 4 LBS 10c

- SILVERCROOK CREAMERY PRINTS
- BUTTER POUND 37c
- ACCREDITED BY THE AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION
- EVAP. MILK WHITEHOUSE 4 14 1/2 OZ CANS 25c
- PRIMED WITH TOMATO SAUCE AND CHEESE
- SPAGHETTI "ENCORE" 4 15 1/2 OZ CANS 25c
- PURE RUIT GELATIN DESSERTS
- SPARKLE (except coffee) 6 3/4 OZ PKGS 25c
- YOUR CHOICE OF PLAIN OR WITH TOMATO SAUCE
- BEANS "ANN PAGE" 5 16 OZ CANS 25c
- DRIED WITH FRESH WASHED AIR IN SANITARY ROOMS
- MACARONI "ENCORE" 5 8 OZ PKGS 25c
- THE AMERICAN STANDARD... ORANGE PEKOE
- NECTAR TEA 1/2 LB PKG 25c
- GRIND FRESH BEFORE YOUR EYES... IN SCREW-TOP TINS
- BOKAR COFFEE 1 LB TIN 19c
- ALLURE FRUIT FLAVORS... INCLUDING RASPBERRY AND STRAWBERRY
- PRESERVES "ANN PAGE" 1 LB JAR 15c

- Extra Special Values!
- FLOUR SUNNYFIELD 24 1/2 LB BAG 79c
- SUNNYFIELD 24 1/2 LB BAG 69c
- GOLD MEDAL FLOUR 16 LB BAG $1.13
- PILLSBURY'S BEST FLOUR 24 1/2 LB BAG $1.11
- EGGS NEW ARRIVALS NOT COLD STORAGE DOZEN 29c
- OLEO HUTLEY MARGARINE 2 LBS 25c
- COFFEE "MAXWELL HOUSE" 1 LB 25c
- SWANSDOWN CAKE FLOUR 2 3/4 LB PKG 25c
- TOMATO JUICE 3 BOTTLES 20c
- KETCHUP "BARKER" 16 OZ BOTTLE 10c
- DEL MONTE PEACHES 16 OZ CAN 15c
- FORCE TONICED WHOLE WHEAT FLAKES 2 PKGS 23c
- WALDORF TOILET TISSUE 6 ROLLS 25c
- SCOTT TOILET TISSUE 3 ROLLS 23c
- NOXON POLISH 16 PINT JAR 19c
- PURE GRAPE JAM 16 OZ JAR 19c
- BULK RAISINS POUND 5c
- MACARONI or SPAGHETTI POUND 7c

- Sultana PEANUT BUTTER
- Its fresh, smooth creamy flavor delights young and old.
- 1 LB JAR 15c

The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.

★ Behind each one of these great values is the BOND of A&P's resources and reputation for selling fine foods at lowest possible prices... plus an absolute guarantee of satisfaction or your money back. It is your assurance of complete confidence in what you buy.

YOU CAN PAY A HIGHER PRICE
but
YOU CAN'T BUY A BETTER LOAF

"Grandmother's" Whole Milk Bread is the finest loaf of bread that is possible to bake. Already sliced! Delicious flavor! Marvelous when toasted! - - - and keeps fresh for days. The smooth lasting freshness is definite proof of its richness in milk and other high quality ingredients.

Grandmother's WHOLE MILK BREAD

large 20 oz loaf

A & P's Guarantee

Just try a loaf - - - this week's special price is inviting. If "Grandmother's" Whole Milk Bread isn't a BETTER bread and a BIGGER value than you've ever had then just return the wrapper and we will refund the purchase price. Fair isn't it?

AL SMITH HOLDS LEAD IN 'NEW DEAL' BALLOT RACE

Alfred E. Smith held his 2 to 1 lead today over the New Deal in the poll being conducted by the Boston Evening American and Boston Sunday Advertiser.

At today's poll in the tabulation the returns stand:
Smith, 444; New Deal, 248.

In his now famous speech at the Liberty League dinner in New York denouncing the Roosevelt administration and the New Deal.

Answering the attack, Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas praised the administration and the New Deal.
New hundreds of New Englanders are holding on to the question, "Who, in your belief, delivered the more convincing argument, Alfred E. Smith or Senator Joseph T. Robinson?"

APPROVES SMITH STAND

The voting is being done on ballots published in the Boston Evening American and Boston Sunday Advertiser, but in many cases the ballots are accompanied by letters with margin comments or with letters explaining why they have gone in one way or the other.
Such as a letter from Walter E. Sacherl, four and will feel dealer of 400 Main street, Boston, which said:

"Alfred E. Smith has proven himself a thoroughly true patriotic American. I admire his stand in placing his country above political interference.

"When anybody undertakes to violate the Constitution of our wonderful country, or advocates anything to get around it, it is time for real patriotic men and women to call a halt."

"Al Smith is one of many, with plenty of backbone, to carry out courage of his convictions. I believe next November the people will respond in such large numbers to leave no doubt in the minds of our citizens and the many aliens within our borders that the United States is God's country and in Him we trust."

Or a letter, such as this, from Lowell Mason Palmer, 2nd, of Brooks School, North Andover:

KNOCKS FOR SMITH

"Smith at best is a hypocrite. He has previously, both in his campaign against Hoover and in the last few years, approved the most radical of the New Deal policies. He is another Huey Long, hoping to make a deal through which he may get into public office."

"He accused Mr. Roosevelt of not adhering to the party platform, but has any politician, Re-

BALLOT SMITH . . . versus . . . NEW DEAL

Who in your belief delivered the more convincing argument, Alfred E. Smith or Senator Joseph T. Robinson. Indicate your answer below.

SMITH
ROBINSON

Mail to Political Editor, Boston Evening American, 5 Winthrop Square, Boston, Mass.

publican or Democrat, done so?"

In today's issue of the Boston Evening American, the ballot is published again.
Clip it out, mark it for your choice and mail it NOW to the Political Editor, Boston Evening American, 5 Winthrop square, Boston.

Army's 'Bombers' Grounded by Snow

Concord, N. H., Feb. 4 (AP)—Lack of ceiling due to a heavy snowstorm, kept the army bombers at their winter-manuever here today.

Mayor E. M. Giles, bombardment squad commander, who had planned the first long-range jet, a six-hour flight, said the mission must be postponed until better visibility obtained. All pilots and crews, however, were ordered to remain "alert in the event of a blockade, have impressed the

POPE FEARS NEW WAR Sees Europe Peril in Oil Ban

Vatican City, Feb. 4 (AP)—Vatican prelates said today Pope Pius was "mentally tremendously depressed" over continuance of the Italo-Ethiopian war and the confused dangers of the European situation.

This mental depression, even more than physical tiredness, led the Pontiff to cancel his public audiences yesterday, although he resumed them today, the prelates said.

The international political situation, growing acute in the last few days owing to Geneva discussions of oil embargo proposals and Rome warnings against the possibility of a blockade, have impressed the

CROWD CHEERS JORDAN SHOW

Before an enthusiastic audience of 2000 employees, the third annual grand ball and stage revue of the Jordan Marsh Company Sports Association, was held in the Imperial Ballroom of the Hotel Statler.

Flash of 1935, the title of the revue, was composed exclusively of employees of the company, and their efforts were acclaimed as being on a par with the best of the professionals.

Robert Bancroft, amateur stage director, was chiefly responsible for the "Flash of 1935." He was assisted by A. E. Pinney, as production chairman; Wilfred Dinan, as assistant; and Walter Knight and Raymond C. Bab as stage managers.

The advisory committee was headed by George W. Milton, chairman of the board of directors, assisted by Richard Milton, president; Edward R. Milton, vice-president; Burnell G. Hewkins, store manager; William Everett, treasurer; Robert Milton and Cameron Thompson, merchandise managers; Carol J. Robinson, Bernard F. Taylor, Daniel Walsh, Benjamin S. White and Harold W. Miller.

Several Hurt in Bus Spill

Sharon Hill, Pa., Feb. 4 (AP)—Three passengers were critically injured and several others hurt today when a Philadelphia bound bus skidded on an icy road and careened over a 30-foot embankment near here.

Gala Program for Crescendo Club

Miss Maria A. Bergeron, president of the Crescendo Club, has arranged a gala program to be held on the club's monthly meeting at 1 Arlington street, Friday morning at 11.

Those on the program are: Florence Crockett, soprano, accompanied by Carl Leone Wolff; Esther Stein, pianist; Celia Hirschhorn, violinist; Hudson Carmody, baritone; and Mrs. Mary G. Reed, accompanist.

Floods in France

Paris, Feb. 4 (AP)—Portions of southwestern France were flooded today when rivers overflowed after several days of heavy rain. The fields around the city of Cognac were under water.

PERMANENTS

CURLS and SWIRLS
Are Now Featured in the New PERSONALITY PERMANENTS

A special all-day special of 40¢ for Shampoo and Set Finger Wave Chased Trim $1.50 to Midway

Shampoo and Set Finger Wave Chased Trim $1.50 to Midway

Artiste Shampo

215 Dexter Bldg., 451 Washington St., Opp. Jordan Marsh Tel. Lib. 7881 With or Without Appointment

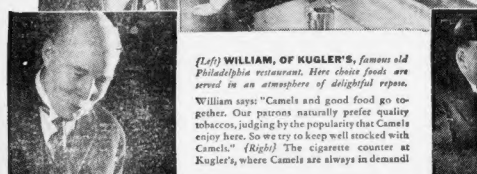

The fast pace of Modern Living puts an extra strain on Digestion

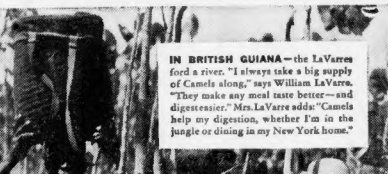

RED LIGHT! No left turn! Keep in line! Today's tangled traffic puts a load on nerves and digestion. When you "get the red" light a Camel. Camels set you right... help keep the digestion working normally.

Natural digestive action notably increased by smoking Camels

People in every walk of life get "keyed up." The effects on digestion are known to all! In this connection, it is an interesting fact that smoking a Camel during or between meals tends to stimulate and promote digestion. Enjoy Camel's mildness... the feeling of well-being fostered by Camel's matchless blend of costlier tobaccos. Smoke Camels for digestion's sake!

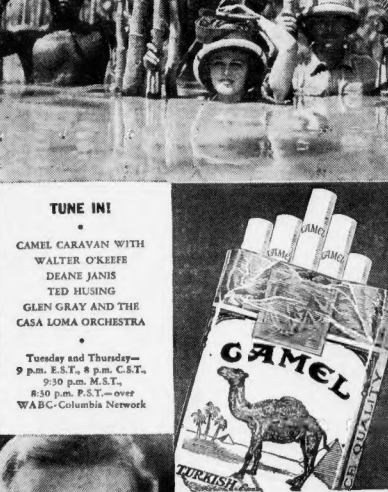

(Left) WILLIAM, OF KUGLER'S, famous old Philadelphia restaurant. Here choice foods are served in an atmosphere of delightful repose. William says: "Camels and good food go together. Our patrons naturally prefer quality tobaccos, judging by the popularity that Camels enjoy here. So we try to keep well stocked with Camels." (Right) The cigarette counter at Kugler's, where Camels are always in demand.

IN BRITISH GUIANA—the LaVarre ford a river. "I always take a big supply of Camels along," says William LaVarre. "They make any meal taste better—and digester." Mrs. LaVarre adds: "Camels help my digestion, whether I'm in the jungle or dining in my New York home."

A TIP FROM GEORGE LOTT, former U.S. Doubles Tennis Champion. Athletes know how nervous strain and over-exertion strike at the digestion. He says: "I smoke a great deal... while eating and after eating. Camels have a beneficial effect on digestion. They help me to enjoy what I eat and get more good out of it."

TUNE IN!
CAMEL CARAVAN WITH
WALTER O'KEEFE
DEANE JANIS
TED HUSING
GLEN GRAY and THE CASA LOMA ORCHESTRA
Tuesday and Thursday—
9 p.m. E.S.T., 8 p.m. C.S.T.,
9:30 p.m. M.S.T.,
8:30 p.m. P.S.T.—over
WABC-Columbia Network

COSTLIER TOBACCOS!

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.

For Digestion's Sake —smoke Camels

CURLEY KIRNAP THREAT TIP WINS $25

By THE NEWSPAPER EDITOR

A salesman noticed a police guard stationed about Governor Curley's house. He immediately phoned his information to the Boston Evening American which resulted in the discovery of kidnapping threats against the governor's son, Francis.

The salesman was awarded this week's highest newsmen award of $25.

Second money went to a Salem, Mass., man who gave the Boston Evening American an exclusive story on two Italian divers. The prize was $10.

A neighbor in Malden discovered that 22 persons had been overcome by gas escaping from a leaking radiator. He telephoned us promptly and won the third prize of $5 in the weekly newsmen contest.

51 PRIZE WINNERS

Ten more prizes of $1 each were awarded as follows:

A truck driver for the tip on a man buried under a pile of coke in a Dorchester coal yard.

A motorist for the tip on five men hurt, two of them seriously, in an automobile crash in Weymouth.

A neighbor who gave us the first report of a fire in a house in which a four-year-old child lost his life and three others narrowly escaped a similar fate.

A student for the tip on a Peabody high school boy who was injured in an accident.

A clerk who gave the American news of a man badly burned in a Waltham fire.

A domestic who told us about a boy crashing through the ice of Charles river in Waltham when he was coasting.

PHONE AT ONCE

A clerk who gave us information on a safe cracking job on East street.

A motorist who told us about two persons overcome by gas in Boston, one of the victims having been fatally injured.

A student gave us the tip on an exclusive Maine story.

A neighbor who gave us the tip on a young girl who took poison, narrowly escaped death, and finally was revived at East Boston Relief hospital.

Thirteen persons in Boston received a total of $30 this week for the expenditure of a nickel. They saw a story and rushed for a telephone. It paid them rich dividends.

It doesn't take newspaper training to give us a tip which may mean money in your pocket. Just call 13th, 900 and ask for the American Newspaper Editor.

Six Quality for School Physician

The names of three women and three men physicians were today submitted to the Boston school committee from which to appoint school physicians for permanent work at $200 a year.

The six directed to report to Ellen M. Cronin, secretary of the school committee for interviews, were: Dr. Marion D. Wilkinson, 5 Ashmore road, West Roxbury; Dr. H. H. Martin, 18 Woodward street, Dorchester; Helen M. Murphy, 11 Clute street, West Roxbury; Dr. Morris N. Davidson, 37 Blue Hill avenue, Roxbury; John J. Murphy, Jr., 70 Dix street, Dorchester; and Benjamin M. Banks, 305 Riverway, Boston.

Buying American Way to Win Back America's Prosperity

ACTION NEEDS
NO APOLOGY TO ANYONE

The writer of this article of "Buy American" as a recognized trade expert who has maintained American exports in such posts as Vladivostok, Shanghai, Stockholm, and other overseas centers. Until recently he was United States consular attaché with the American legation at Belgrade.

By EMIL KERICH
Former United States Commerce Attaché

New York, Feb. 4 (U.S.)—America's foreign trade is not merely a question of imports and exports of merchandise. This exchange of goods is only part of our foreign trade.

In 1935, for example, the United States exported $2,322,000 worth of products to world markets and imported $2,019,000 worth of goods from abroad. At $2,047,797,000, the difference leaving us a net gain of $308,297,000 in trade of $244,000,000.

Even if our exports and imports balanced exactly our foreign trade, strange as it may seem, would be adverse. By the time we calculate what we have sent abroad in tourist expenditures, in charges of shipping companies for carrying our exports and imports, in premiums to foreign insurance companies, in capital transactions—the excess in favor of foreign trade.

Now it is a peculiar fact that in the invisible items of foreign trade the United States spends more money abroad than any other country. These expenditures are greater, but even in had times they stand in formidable. This places the United States in a situation unlike that of any other country with respect to foreign trade.

This situation, aggravated in 1935 by great increases in imports into the United States of grain and preparations, staple foodstuffs and manufactured goods, has become a serious matter. It has caused us to be considered as international easy marks—a diplomatic joke.

Few intelligent people advocate completely isolationist nationalism, but no one can deny that the prosperity of America depends upon its domestic business. This is apparent when we consider that America's domestic business alone equals half the business of the whole world. An increase of just a few per cent in the year 1935 is equal to an increase of a hundred million dollars in the year 1934.

A large measure of the economic welfare of countries trading with the United States is dependent on

Buy American

Made in America Club, Inc.,
420 Lexington Ave., New York.

I hereby pledge myself to buy, so far as practicable, only products made or grown in America, by American labor, of American materials, and thereby protect my job, give work to my fellow-Americans and maintain the American standard of wages.

Name _____

Address _____

Sign the above pledge card, clip it from your Boston Evening American, and mail it to THE MADE IN AMERICA CLUB, INC., 420 LEXINGTON AVENUE, NEW YORK CITY. You will thus be showing your interest in a "Buy America" movement to help American industry and employ American labor.

U. S. Population 127,521,000 in 1935

Washington, Feb. 4 (AP)—The 1935 population of the United States today was officially estimated by the Census Bureau at 127,521,000.

The official count is taken as of the middle of the year—July 1.

The sex figure represented a gain of 0.71 per cent from 1934, and of 4 per cent from 1920, when the last actual count was taken.

"If the increase should be continued at this rate until the end of the decade," the bureau said, "the nation's population in 1940 would be around 143,000,000."

Indicative, however, of a slowing up in the nation's population growth was the fact that the average annual increase since 1920 was 0.64 per cent, which is only a little more than one-half of the 1920-1930 average of 1.65 per cent.

STOP BALDNESS

WHAT A SHAME!
To see a man with a bald head is an old man! Baldness is an old man's trouble! Baldness is a shame!

Man, 80, in Crash, 'Too Old to Drive'

New Haven, Ct., Feb. 4 (U.S.)—A man 80 is too old to drive an automobile, according to Coroner James J. Corrigan.

He recommended revocation of the license of Ralph J. Busi, 80, of Madison, because of his advanced age. He is finding it difficult to drive. Mrs. Margaret C. Busi, 74, killed when the car driven by Busi crashed into one driven by James S. Stae, New Canaan.

Red Fox Escapes

Poultry owners were warned by the Massachusetts Game Commission following the escape last night of a red fox belonging to Peter Skapin, 31 Franklin street, Everett.

Soviet Conductor Doomed to Death

Kharkov, U. S. S. R., Feb. 4 (AP)—The southern railway court today sentenced Conductor A. Tolmacheff to death for robbing an 11-year-old boy passenger and pushing him off a train. Tolmacheff was described as a former non-commissioned officer in the Czar's army.

Big Nickel

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 4 (AP)—There was just a nickel between Jack Pundola's 80 days in jail and a five-year prison term.

Pundola, a Negro, admitted stealing a bicycle valued at $10.88. Another five cents value and the theft would have been a felony instead of a misdemeanor.

Hyde Park Woman Identifies Robber

Lying in bed, suffering from injuries received at the hands of two robbers who invaded her home last night, Mrs. Fedora Klonowski, 49, of 186 Wood avenue, Hyde Park, today allegedly identified a man as one of her assailants.

Today and every day you will find excellent used cars advertised in the Automobile-for-Sale columns of the American and Advertiser.

LLOYD'S
Auto Loans
Budget options
Boston, Cambridge, Salem

ORANGE SALE

Juicy FLORIDAS from Indian River

Thousands of boxes of these fancy thin skinned, juicy oranges have been purchased for this outstanding sale.

EXTRA LARGE SIZE DOZ. 29c
DOZ. MED. SIZE 49c

EVANGELINE MILK

Unsweetened evaporated. For all cooking purposes where milk is used.

4 TALL TINS 25c

PURE PRESERVES

1 LB. JAR 29c
Mixed - Raspberry, Strawberry, Blackberry, Apricot, Pineapple, Cherry

Meat Values

RUMP STEAK

BEST CUTS WELL TRIMMED HEAVY STEER BEEF

lb 45c

GLORIETTA PEACHES

TIN 14c
TOMATO - VEGETABLE - CELERY - PEA

PHILLIP'S SOUPS

4 10 1/2 oz. TINS 19c

AN EXCELLENT SHORTENING

SNOWDRIFT SHORTENING

1 LB. PKG 17c

PALE OR GOLDEN GINGER ALE - PRICE CONTENTS

CLICQUOT CLUB

PINT BOT 10c

FANCY SWEET MIXED - TENDER - CRISP

BANQUET PICKLES

QUART BOT 29c

FANCY CEYLON OR HONOLAND ORANGE PECKE BLEND

GOLDEN ROSE TEA

16 LB. CTN 25c

FANCY FLORIDA - UNEXCELLED FLAVOR

SILVER NIP GRAPEFRUIT JUICE

2 10 oz. BOTTS 27c

ASSORTED KINDS - KEEP A SUPPLY ON HAND

BUFFET FRUITS

8 oz. TINS 23c

A POPULAR CIGARETTE AT A POPULAR PRICE

CHESTERFIELDS

2 PKGS 25c

PRIZE BREAD

A delicious homelike flavored loaf, baked in our own ovens, delivered fresh to every First National Store daily. Sliced or Regular.

1 1/4 LB. LOAF 8c

FINAST COOKIES

FRESH BAKED 2 LBS 23c
DUTCH BUTTER • MOLASSES • HONEY RAISIN • CHOCOLATE

Bread Flour

Finest Brand 2 1/2 lb. Bag 79c
Old Homestead 2 1/2 lb. Bag 69c

Peanut Butter

Finest 1 lb. Jar 15c

Standard Peas

No 2 Tin 10c

Shredded Wheat

2 PKGS 23c

Finast Peaches

Sliced or Halves 2 No 2 1/2 Tins 15c

Peaches

Richmond Sliced or Halves 2 No 2 1/2 Tins 27c

Chipso

Flakes or Granules Large Pkg 19c

Crisko

3 1/2 lb. Tin 57c

Camay Soap

4 Bars 19c

Ovaltine

6 1/2 oz. Tin 29c

Gold Medal Cake Flour

5 lbs. Bulk 33c

Peanut Butter Buds

1 lb. Bulk 19c

Sweetheart Soap

5 Bars 19c

Del Maiz Corn

2 Tins 25c

Kipper Snacks

King Oscar 3 No 1/2 Tins 13c

Alice Veg. Soup

3 29oz. Tins 25c

Richmond Tea

1/2 lb. Ctn 19c

The Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York

First Policy Issued February 1, 1843—Ninety-three Years Ago

On December 31, 1935, this "First American Life Insurance Company" to issue a Policy, had Assets of $1,239,039,565, an increase of $78,529,913 over 1934.

During 1935 the Company paid Policyholders and their Beneficiaries $136,591,009.

The Company's Fund for Depreciation of Securities

BALANCE SHEET, DECEMBER 31, 1935
ASSETS	LIABILITIES AND RESERVES
Cash	Policy Reserves
United States Government bonds	Supplementary Contract Reserves
State, County and Municipal bonds	Other Policy Liabilities
Canadian Government, Provincial and Municipal bonds	Premiums, Interest and Rents paid in advance
Other Foreign Government bonds	Miscellaneous Liabilities
Railroad, Public Utility and Industrial bonds	Reserve against Interest on Mortgage Loans
Preferred and Guaranteed stocks	Reserve for Taxes
Mortgage Loans (on cost)	Dividends payable in 1936
Real Estate (at cost or less)	Reserve for Future Deferred Dividends
Policy Loans	Special Contingency Reserve
Premiums in course of collection	Fund for Depreciation of Securities and General Contingencies
Interest and Rents due and accrued
Cash advanced to pay claimants
Total Admitted Assets	Total

*The "Special Contingency Reserve" represents the difference between the values carried in assets for non-insurable bonds and for preferred stocks and the actual December 31, 1935 market quotations on such bonds and stocks.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York

PAUL S. BURNS, Manager, 31 Milk Street, Boston

FIRST NATIONAL STORES, INC.

The American Weekly made a substantial increase in advertising linage and revenue for the month of January, 1936, in comparison with the same month of last year, and is one of very few national publications to show an increase.

MILLS
RETURN

ROADS
Make Fine
RECORD

Processing Taxes to Buyers

New York, Feb. 4.—Despite the unfortunate recent accident near Newbury, Pa., the railroad industry is magnificently ready to go.

Until last week, there have been no fatal passenger accidents in the United States in at least 13 months.

Likewise, in this recent extraordinary freight spill, the railroad industry has responded, though unable to recall the exact figures, with a record of safety.

In their new competition with the trucking industry, the railroads showed themselves to customers of New England Telephone Co. in New York City within a short time practically all of the more than fifteen hundred receivers in the city will be out of service. The company says that the delays will be those occasioned by the need to replace the equipment bookkeeping by the new system.

Henry A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, in a recent radio address, said that the Federal Government is not going to raise the taxes to the mills as a legal condition of clearing the land. He said that the Government will refund of the taxes to the mills. That his address was in complete disagreement with the utterance of Secretary of Agriculture not only was it a correction of the utterance but it was a correction of the utterance.

The refunded tax money is going back to the mills' customers under terms of agreements that have been in effect for several years. In a letter to the official, Secretary Wallace should keep himself informed on matters of common knowledge.

When the letter to Secretary Wallace was saving the country over the radio, it was reported from Washington that an airplane

"It looks as though Mr. Wallace was sounding the tocsin for another assault on the cotton textile industry. If this gentle-

[illegible]

See the stress at the following M & P Theatres:

Metropolitan,
Paramount,
Fenway,
New Scollay,
Modern,
Olympia and Beacon
Theatres in Boston

Set No. 27 in Tomorrow's

BOSTON AMERICAN

Hold your pictures until you have ALL sets, Nos. 1 to 36—108 COMPLETE pictures in all. Last set, No. 36, appears Saturday, Feb. 15. Don't mail them to theatres—read the rules.

BACK COPIES AVAILABLE
IF YOU MISSED SETS

Back numbers of the Boston Evening American containing sets of pictures in the game of "Movie Faces" may be obtained in the circulation department at 5 Winthrop Square, Boston, for two cents each. If sent by mail, three cents each.

FLOYD GIBBONS' PAGE OF THRILLS AND MYSTERY

The Chief's Son

The Saga of an Indian Dwarf and Little Paleface Girl

By FLOYD GIBBONS

HELLO EVERYBODY:

And a very loud "HOW" to you, Mrs. Little I. Crawford Allen, away down there in your home in Dade City, Florida. Can you hear me? I like your Indian story today and I'm putting a ten-dollar check in the mails for you right this minute.

You know, boys and girls, we hear a lot of criticism in this country of ours about Italy's action in Ethiopia, and yet when you come to think of it we did just about the same thing ourselves when we took this land away from the Indians. Personally, I think the American Indian was a darn swell fellow. Don't you? I know Mrs. Allen does.

Mrs. Allen was married to an Indian and she was a very good Indian. It happened many years ago—in 1885 to be exact. Little Moosa—that was her name—was 10 years old at the time. She was living with her family in Chico, Washington, on Port Washington Bay, which is a tributary of Puget Sound.

The Sparks family were about the only white people in that section. In those days, the Indians were very friendly and school chums were made. Little Moosa was a very good girl and her father was a very good Indian. He was a very good Indian and he was a very good Indian.

One of Little Moosa's adoring admirers was an Indian boy named Moose Seattle. "Little Moose," as he was called, was a dwarf and no larger than Little Moosa's small brother. But he came from an illustrious American family. His grandfather was Chief Seattle after whom Seattle, Washington, was named.

Little Moose had a light round bottomed dory which was much faster than the safe unwieldy boat which the Sparks children were supposed to use, and often when Little Moosa had been late for school, Little Moose would obligingly row her and her brother quickly across the bay in his craft. The little Indian dwarf was always happy to be of service to his idol.

One day when Little Moosa was rowing down to school and Little Moose was rowing up to school, the two boats met. Little Moose was just coming around the bend when he saw the little Indian dwarf was always happy to be of service to his idol.

But Little Moose shook his head sadly and held on to her. His idol must be saved even if he lost his life in doing it. She could see her brother struggling in the water and hear his gurgling cry as he strove with his might to live. The boy's frantic efforts to keep afloat only seemed to force him under the water. Twice, the little fellow went under and twice came again to the surface, the last time plainly exhausted. He looked at Little Moosa, threw his arms out in a despairing gesture and disappeared for the third time. This time he did not come up. Andrew had gone forever.

Little Moosa was alone. With Andrew dead she didn't care what became of her and she was going to help the brave Indian boy fight his way to a safe life. Fortunately for both of them, Nature came to the dwarf's assistance and motherly pulled the little girl's head. She floated.

For two hours the Indian boy held the white girl above water. He was not strong enough to swim with her to shore, but he was able to keep the two of them afloat until the keen eyes of Chief Chico, the stepfather of Little Moosa, saw the two heads bobbing about far out in the bay. The chief called to other brave and in a minute a score of dorymen were racing to the rescue.

When they reached the spot, Little Moosa had just about shot his last arrow. Semi-conscious, the Indian boy was headed aboard with the unconscious Little Moosa still in his arms.

That all happened many years ago. Little's parents moved away soon after, from the place that held too tragic a memory for them. Little grew up and became a business woman, but she never forgot the little Indian dwarf who had risked his life that she might live.

In 1911, she received word from the U. S. Navy Hospital at Puget Sound that an Indian patient named Moose was seeking for her. The Indian had been fatally burned, they wrote, and was dying. Little hurried to the hospital and there was Little Moose smiling up at her from his bed of pain.

"I wanted to see you once again," he said and died.

"He was small in stature," Little said, "but his courage and manliness were as large as the world, and I know that Little Moosa's white soul went straight to the Happy Hunting Ground."

Good for you, Mrs. Little Allen, and welcome into the club. And as for your future adventure, I'm passing out dilly!

Floyd Gibbons, himself an adventurer of note, is never too busy to listen to the other fellow's experiences. He wants to hear the story of the biggest thrill in YOUR life, and wants to pay you ten dollars for it. Floyd says anyone can draw down one of those ten dollar checks, or win the hundred that he gives for the best TRUE adventure story of the month. Literary ability has nothing to do with it. Send him YOUR story. Win a prize and become a member of the Adventurers' Club.

HOW TO WIN
$100.00
And Membership in The Floyd Gibbons Adventurers' Club

All you have to do is write an ordinary letter, giving in your own words the plain facts of your most thrilling experience. Mail that letter to Floyd Gibbons, care of the Boston Evening American, 8 Winthrop square, Boston. There is only one rule to remember. YOUR STORY MUST BE TRUE. Floyd pays $10 for each story printed, and an additional hundred for the best yarn of the month. Keep a copy of your letter. NO STORY CAN BE RETURNED. Do not send valuable souvenirs or pictures.

SECRET AGENT X-9

TIM TYLER'S FLYING LUCK

(Follow Tim Tyler in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

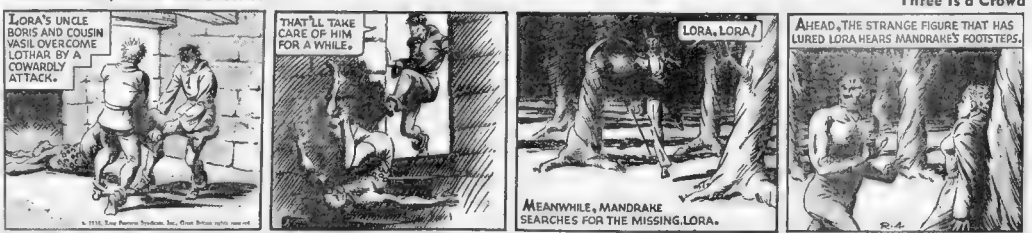

RED BARRY

(Follow Red Barry in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

MANDRAKE, THE MAGICIAN

Three Is a Crowd

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

(Follow Little Annie Rooney in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

THE LITTLE WOMAN

He Got It—Somehow!

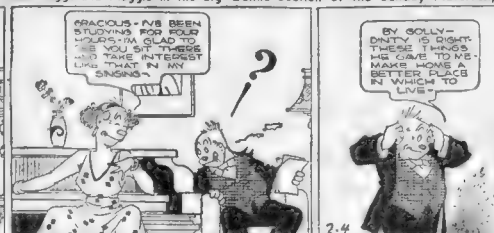

THIMBLE THEATRE, Starring POPEYE

BRINGING UP FATHER

(Follow Jiggs and Maggie in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

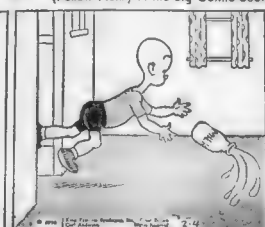

Marvels of Science

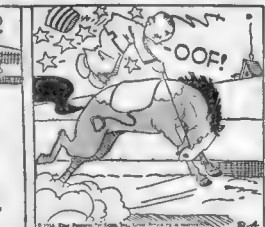

HENRY

(Follow Henry in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

Good Intentions

JUST KIDS

Off the Shelf

Join X-9ers; Get Your Badge

Become a member of the X-9 Club. Write your name, street number, city or town on plain paper and enclose five cents to pay for banding of badge and membership card.

By return mail you will receive your card and a new, shiny badge.

Mail your application to SECRET AGENT X-9, BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN, Post Office Box 2096.

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE By Eugene Sheffer

- HORIZONTAL
- One-horse carriage
 - What English philosophical writer became the husband of George Eliot?
 - Decline
 - What is the capital of Silesia?
 - Sound made by doves
 - Observe
 - What American poet wrote "Little Orphan Annie"?
 - Color
 - What is the patron saint of Ireland?
 - Positive
 - Jealousness
 - Export of Algeria
 - Dramatic poem set to music
 - Swelled out
 - What great paladin of Charlemagne is reputed to have been his nephew?
 - Laughter
 - Who was the "Swedish Nightingale"?
 - Iver in France
 - Female of the domestic fowl
 - Broken cost of a seed of grain
 - Tarn measure
 - Quarrel
 - Shallow vessel
 - Slender stick
 - Salt
 - Entrance
 - Danish coin
 - Extraneous
 - Lower of seats
 - Writing implement
- VERTICAL
- Labor for breath
 - Mental image
 - What American engineer was chosen to complete the building of the Panama Canal?
 - Innocent lemur
 - Derivative poem
 - What Tammany mayor of New York resigned under fire in 1913?
 - What is the principal seaport of Burma?
 - Sweet yeast bread
 - Market
 - Japanese statesman
 - Japanese saah
 - Lesson
 - Poems
 - Drop of water falling from the clouds
 - Tavern
 - Peculiar
 - High priest of Israel
 - Buddle up
 - Suggests
 - Loud harsh cry
 - Doors at large
 - Inspires with fear
 - Equal
 - Learning
 - Who is the new British Foreign Secretary? Sir Anthony
 - Cavity in the ground
 - Bird of the cuckoo family

YESTERDAY'S ANSWERS:

1—Horse-drawn carriage
2—John Ruskin
3—Decline
4—Wroclaw
5—Coo
6—Observe
7—Annie Hall
8—Red
9—St. Patrick
10—Positive
11—Jealousy
12—Algeria
13—Lullaby
14—The Song of Roland
15—Lancelot
16—The Laughing Cavalier
17—The Nightingale
18—The Marquis de Lafayette
19—Hen
20—The Tarn
21—The Quarrel
22—The Shallow Vessel
23—The Salt
24—The Entrance
25—The Danish Coin
26—The Extraneous
27—The Lower of Seats
28—The Writing Implement
29—The Labor for Breath
30—The Mental Image
31—The Panama Canal
32—The Lemur
33—The Derivative Poem
34—The Tammany Mayor

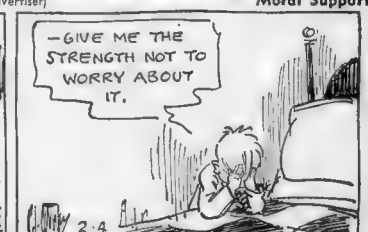

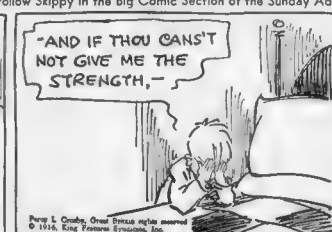

POLLY AND HER PALS

Rubbing Her Fur the Wrong Way

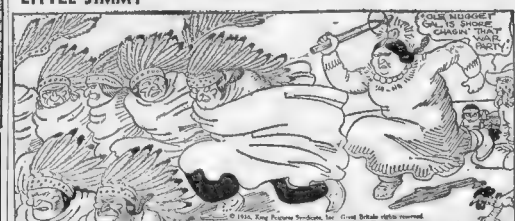

SKIPPIY

(Follow Skippiy in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

Moral Support

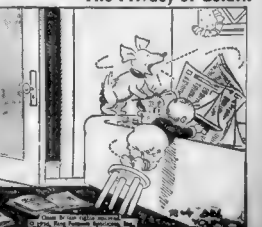

LITTLE JIMMY

The Important Pipe

BLONDIE

(Follow Blondie in the Big Comic Section of the Sunday Advertiser)

The Privacy of Goldfish
